

Patterns

If you've made the House to the sizes given in the plans, the windows and door patterns should fit without any further trimming. The other patterns are a little oversized, so any excess can be trimmed off.

If you've received these patterns as an E-mail attachment, print this page twice.

Glue the stone work round the front and back edges of the frame.

Glue the stone work round the front and back edges of the frame.

